

House Resolution No. 1993

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to express their appreciation of Show-Me State residents who play a leadership role in providing the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary for today's students to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Al Kemp has served as a member of the Board of Education for the Grandview C-4 School District since 2002, a service endeavor which he will draw to a close in 2005 after also having served as the organization's treasurer since 2004; and

Whereas, during his tenure on the Board of Education, Al Kemp received Master Board Member Certification from the Missouri School Board Association and chaired the District's Finance Committee which received accolades in 2004 from MSIP for its Finance Committee Model; and

Whereas, the Grandview C-4 School District received Distinction in Performance ratings from the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education during two of the three years Al Kemp served on the School Board; and

Whereas, Al Kemp brought to his leadership with the Grandview C-4 School District Board of Education a wealth of knowledge and experience he garnered as a substitute teacher for Grandview schools and the Ozanam Home for Boys, Colonel in the United States Army, and founder of four businesses; and

Whereas, Al Kemp prepared for his diverse endeavors in life by earning Bachelor of Arts and Master of Public Administration degrees from Brigham Young University, attending the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, and participating in a post-graduate fellowship at the Inter-American Defense College and Industrial College of the Armed Forces in Washington, D.C.; and

Whereas, Al Kemp has accrued extensive civic and volunteer service at local, regional, national, and international levels and has provided leadership, management, or fund-raising expertise to more than one hundred twenty-five boards, commissions, councils, task forces, and committees:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar service and leadership so generously contributed by Al Kemp to the Grandview C-4 School District Board of Education and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success as he shifts the focus of his time and energy to other venues; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Al Kemp of Kansas City, Missouri.
